June 2019

Proclaiming Christ through Thought,
Word, and Deed!

Pastor Bart Muller
"Stated Supply Pastor"

Imagine, if you will ---

You come home from vacation 4 ½ hours late; you sleep an unrelaxing sleep. Then you scrape yourself together to pick up the dog (who now has an infection) and get to the post office to pick up the mail. The nice guy behind the counter hands you a pile of stuff that would bust the shocks on a monster truck.

You take your car to the shop, where you are informed that it will cost a grand to fix what ails it. You return home to start wading through the pile of mail amid the still-ongoing construction project (which is now finally finished). As usual. It is junk, cool stuff, cool stuff, are you kidding me, junk.... Then you come to a nondescript envelope; you are tempted to just pitch it, but decide to take a look.

Someone, according to the credit card company, has had a great time being me. My first thought, "this is a scam" since they asked for all kinds of personal information. Jennifer, with her great computer skills, checks it out. Nope, it's for real. Call to confirm – it's real, someone has maybe stolen your identity. Stolen your identity. Let that sink in. Not your today, not your memories, not your future, but your identity – a list of stuff; the years of paying bills on time, paying ahead on your mortgage, cars, school stuff, your identity.

What is your identity? Who or what determines who you are? Or maybe where you are. It keeps me up, I've got to tell you. The rebuilding process looks about as much fun as being an Indian in a John Wayne movie. Where to start?

Reminder - information sheets are due. These are very important in ensuring that our official parish records are accurate and up to date. It is important that we receive a data sheet from each and every member. If you have not already done so, please complete the sheet and put it in the President's church mailbox. Blank forms are available in the narthex. Thank you for your helpfulness.

Sunday, June 9, is PENTECOST SUNDAY!
Know why that's important? See: Acts 2:1-13

When you think of it, there are many things that can rob you of your identity; loss of a job, illness, things that are done to you, mistakes, growing old, the hurts you have absorbed, the hurts you didn't mean to inflict but did, being alone, being the one who always tries to be super this or that. Now someone has stolen your identity.

It all means you need to start with the stuff no one can steal – who you are to God. At the sacramental moment, on the sleepless night, God says,

I have formed you, I know
 You are mine.
 I want to nourish, preserve
 You in delight and mercy.
 You are an expression of
 My divine hope and love.
 You are my best hope and
 Last chance in the world.
 Who are you?
 Loved, honored, blessed by
 Water and the word, noble,
 Loved.
 All this and more.
 Praise God !

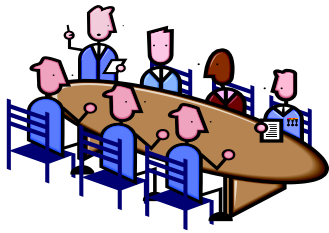

Brother to Brother Returns!

The musical duo from Swartz Creek returns to King of Glory on Sunday, June the ninth. Richard Thompson and Matt Packer will again share an hour of spiritual and inspirational music for our worship service that morning. Brother to Brother has performed for us at least twice previously and was well received and highly acclaimed. We hope all members will plan to attend this special event. Please bring family members, friends, and neighbors. All are most welcome.

Many thanks to Felicia Cook for all of her effort on Relay for Life again this year, and to all members who lent their support.

Council Update

At recent church council meetings, our council:

- (1) Supported the fabrication of a removable safety handrail at the entrance of the altar platform. (Many thanks to Carl for volunteering to engineer this appliance.)
- (2) Approved a contract with a commercial cleaning service for the church.
- (3) Accepted an updated policy for church memorial donations.
- (4) Endorsed the purchase of four boxes of replacement ceiling tiles.
- (5) Continues to receive information from parishioners in order to accurately update church records.
- (6) Learned that Joe has replaced and upgraded all of the electrical outlets. (Thank you, Joe.)
- (7) Appreciates Molly leading the council in each meeting's closing prayer - The Lord's Prayer.

It's almost time for Salem Lutheran Church's annual Summer Day Camp!! Camp is scheduled for July with leadership again provided by the Living Waters staff. We King of Glory members will have a special offering on June 23, for everyone wanting to help support this worthwhile cause. The money will be used to pay camp staff and for craft supplies, food (two meals and a treat), special activities, such as at For-Mar, and trucking in fresh, clean water for "water day", as well as backpacks filled with school supplies for each participant. This is a great way to impact a Flint Child's life.

- Sally

Our Flushing Christian Outreach Center

In this month of June, our Flushing Christian Outreach Center is suggesting that we collect and donate the following:

Men's and Women's Deodorant
and
Fruit Juices (apple, grape, etc.)

Thank you, everyone, for your support of the "Heartbeat" program for disadvantaged infants and toddlers. The program representative who accepted our contributions was very pleased and impressed with our generous and enthusiastic support.
